

Patient Orientated Compression

Tuesday May 13, 2014

Maastricht, NL

embedded into the EVC Meeting

Programme

10:00-12:00

QOL and ICF

Christine Moffatt, UK

Moderators: Ch. Moffatt, R. Damstra

QOL and compression therapy

Nele Devoogdt, BE

International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) and compression

J. Hafner, CH

Lessons learned from a Swiss stocking study

J.P Benigni, F

Criteria for non-compliance of MCS

Stefanie Reich-Schupke, D Self assessment of compression in elderly and overweight patients

R. Damstra, NL

ICF orientated clinimetrics for compression trials in lymphoedema

13:00-14:00

From the view-point of the industry

Els Brouwer, NL

Moderators: U. Meyer, M. Neumann

Self-management in compression from different perspectives; the professional and the patient

J. Schuren, NL

The effectiveness of comfort

M. Kloeppels, D

Comparison of compression devices from the perspective of a bandage producer

M. Chauveau, G. Thiney,
F Cros, F

Donning of graduated compression stockings: Complex process but easy assessment?

14:00-15:00

Elaboration of a questionnaire

M. Jünger, D

Moderators: M. Jünger, G. Mosti, H. Partsch

Useful items to be asked for assessing applicability and comfort of compression devices: Experiences from different studies

G. Mosti, I

Proposals for a patients questionnaire to assess patients acceptance of compression devices

16:00-18:00

Discussion